Kevin O'Brien Studio's 25th Anniversary Collection

Philadelphia, PA -- Kevin O'Brien Studio announces the debut of their 25th Anniversary Collection, a series of decorative pillows, in honor of the design that launched O'Brien's career in textiles.

Faces pillow #2 shown in lime green

Decades ago when Kevin O'Brien was still working as an artist, he began painting his artwork onto silk scarves, and selling them haphazardly here and there. Eventually a friend showed his Faces and Figures scarves to a buyer for Barneys New York, and a new business was born. Now, 25 years later, Kevin O'Brien Studio is re-introducing the Faces design as a collection of throw pillows.

The new Faces collection includes 4 different patterns offered in 2 different colorways, and each one is finished off with a colorful piping along the edges. The faces were created with thick brush strokes, giving them the look of an artists' muse that was loosely translated onto a canvas.

The collection, as well as other new pillows, will debut during a press event at the KOBS boutique at ABC Home in Manhattan (3rd floor), the week leading up to the August 2011 NYIGF. For more information about this event, please contact the Studio at 215-923-6378.
